Reasons for Nomination

1. Demonstrated efficiency and initiative in the performance of work as a Classified Professional:

---

---

---

---

2. Significant professional accomplishments:

---

---

---

---

3. Describe how the employee improves the overall image of Classified Professionals:

---

---

---

4. Describe the employee's activity in local and/or state associations:

---

---

---

---

Nominees must be active, dues paying members of their local and state associations for at least one year previous to their nominations. Nominees are judged more on whether they improve the "image" of Classified Professional school employees than on the performance of difficult or unusual assignments.

Awards will be given in the following categories: custodial, maintenance, food service, secretarial, assistants, transportation and other. Recipients receive plaques for distinguished service and a $50 cash award. Final judging will be an impartial committee.
